GALLERY INFORMATION

We're proud to do things a little differently at the Revelstoke Visual Arts Centre (RVAC). Here's a little bit more about us, so you can decide if our gallery is the right fit for you.

- The Revelstoke Visual Arts Centre is Revelstoke's only community gallery. Revelstoke is a popular tourist destination throughout the year and is quickly gaining a reputation for being a bustling artist community.
- Our non-profit centre hosts four exhibition spaces as well as private artist studios, a pottery studio, woodshop, print studio, and public workshops.
- RVAC openings are well attended by a diverse range of community members and visitors. These opening events are a chance to meet the artists, enjoy refreshments and listen to live music.
- RVAC is determined to provide a genuinely supportive and welcoming environment for artists and visitors alike. While we maintain a strong level of professionalism and presentation we do not reinforce the exclusivity often found in the art world. The art presented within our gallery represents a diverse range of mediums and themes.
- RVAC is a queer friendly space and we welcome artists with diverse backgrounds.
- This application form is for solo artists, or small groups looking to exhibit their work in our 2027 exhibition season (March 2027 - February 2028)
- Chosen artists will have their work displayed for roughly 8 weeks.
- Artists set their own prices, however guidance can be provided upon request. Artists may also choose to mark their work as "Not For Sale".

Application costs

Each submission will incur a $25 application fee. This goes towards our curation and exhibition expenses. Our team will send an invoice for this application fee in September.

Who Can Apply?

- Applications are open to everyone! The Revelstoke Visual Arts Centre prides itself on exhibiting a diverse mix of artwork from a diverse range of artists.
- Local, regional, national, and international applications are welcome.
- Small groups and collectives are welcome to apply, however we recommend ensuring that your proposed body of work is cohesive.
- All mediums welcome, including installations, sculpture, audiovisual, e.c.t.
- Please note: Artists who exhibited with us in 2026 are not eligible to exhibit again in 2027. As a policy an artist cannot have an exhibition two years in a row. However they may be eligible for the January and February 2028 slots (included in this exhibition season).
- Your artwork should be new or recent work that has not been shown before in Revelstoke.
- The entire body of work does not have to be complete when applying for an exhibition

Artist Fees

The Revelstoke Visual Arts Centre offers an alternative model for compensating our artists. Unfortunately we are unable to pay CARFAC / artist's fees at this time. In lieu of artist fees we provide a reduced commission rate on all gallery and gift shop sales, with 70% to the artist and 30% to the gallery. RVAC also provides additional support to our artists and covers all costs associated with installation, marketing, and exhibition openings. Please see below for a list of services offered.

While we cannot currently pay artist fees, we can help you with letters of support and advice for grant applications. Please contact us if you are interested in seeking out funding and granting opportunities.

We recognise that this alternative compensation model may not work for all artists. While we are aiming to transition to a CARFAC model in the future it is not financially possible at this time. Please contact us if you have any questions or concerns, we aim to be transparent throughout the entire exhibition process.

Our full Exhibition Policy can be sent on request, and all successful applicants will be sent a copy prior to their show.

Accessibility and Chronic Illness

The Revelstoke Visual Arts Centre has a long history of hosting artists with varying accessibility needs. We recognise that everyone has different energy levels, abilities and needs and we're happy to make accommodations. If your exhibition is selected, please notify our staff of any accessibility needs or boundaries you may have, we're happy to accommodate without judgment. You are not required to disclose this during the application process.

Our staff members know a small range of ASL and are happy to host artists who are Deaf and hard of hearing.

Application - Helpful Hints!

- The Exhibition Committee will want to see that you've put thought into your exhibition and the finished product. We encourage diagrams if that helps to illustrate your concept.
- When writing your exhibition theme, or purpose behind the show, we are looking for a clear concept rather than eloquent language. A concise elevator pitch will get your idea through to our committee best.
- Although not mandatory RVAC encourages multi disciplinary components such as; sound, video, installation, sculpture, performance, etc. Think outside the box and have fun with it.
- We understand that your proposed exhibition may not be complete when applying. We also understand that your work may evolve and change as you create. Therefore we accept examples of your previous work. Photo examples should be as close to the proposed show as possible.

If the proposal is for a group exhibition, please provide one main contact and then provide details for all the artists participating within the exhibition.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Application Review

All applications are reviewed by our Exhibition Committee - a group of artists, curators, and educators. The final decision, aided by the exhibition committee, comes down to our Executive Director.

Any further questions can be directed to our gallery administrator: info@revelstokeartgallery.ca

Our team will send invoices for the $25 application fee in rounds. This will likely happen in mid to late September. Please do not be alarmed if your invoice is not sent at the time of submission.

We appreciate how much time and energy it takes to apply for an exhibition. Our Executive Director will notify you no matter the results of your application. These notifications will likely be sent early November.

If you're selected

If your application is successful our staff will contact you with a proposed date, contract, exhibition package, and more information. Once you've submitted your signed contract we encourage you to notify our staff of any accessibility needs or boundaries you may have.
